To watch us dance is to hear our hearts speak—Hopi People Saying

Dancers from far and wide are invited to join the dance! Weekend activities include an informal Welcome Dance and Social on Friday evening, Friday night Ceilidh, Saturday classes with live music, optional Ball review or teacher's choice class, the Kim McGarrity Memorial Ball on Saturday evening, and a combined Sunday morning class. The Asilomar Committee is hard at work planning this year's event. During the middle of last year, a new management company started running the Asilomar property. This year, they have started instituting changes, some of which will affect this year's weekend attendees.

1. Asilomar costs have increased again this year. Many of the catering charges for food and drink have increased over 100%. Therefore, we need to increase the application fee by $10 / person to counter the increase in Asilomar charges for rooms and for catering.
2. Additionally, the Asilomar Committee needs to modify the evening timelines for both Friday and Saturday evenings. The new management company at Asilomar is strictly enforcing "scheduled" late-night activities and charging higher hourly fees for events that continue past 10pm. Therefore, the Asilomar Committee has changed both evenings' timeline in an effort to decrease costs, yet maintain the standards and high quality that we expect from our annual weekend.

Friday night –

- Start the Welcome Dance at 8pm (as normal).
- Serve food and drink (including alcohol – hosted bar) at Hearthside in Merrill Hall at the end of the dance.
- After the dance, we will quietly bring chairs into the center of Merrill Hall and arrange them facing the stage to prepare for the ceilidh. Ceilidh performers will perform in front of the stage (or on the stage if sound hook-up is needed). The ceilidh must be tightly run, people will have to sign up when they send in their registration forms in July, and not every ceilidh act may perform. We will need to be very strict in running the ceilidh, because we need to be out of Merrill before midnight.

Saturday night –

- ELIMINATE the soiree.
- Start the evening with the Grand March at 7:30pm. Everyone can line up at Hearthside since there won't be tables set up for the soiree.
- The Ball will begin before 8pm right after the Grand March is completed.
- The Ball will finish by around 11:30pm, so that we can be out of Merrill before midnight.
- During the second break of the Ball, we will serve food and drink (no alcohol) at Hearthside. This break will not be very long, and we will continue the last set of dances with the food set out in Hearthside. We will insure that not all the food is set out before the end of the dance for those who want to dance in the last set. Again, we need to be out of Merrill Hall before midnight.

Thank you very much for your long-standing support of the Asilomar weekend! Please know that this year's organizing committee is working very hard to keep expenses to a minimum while planning a weekend with the high standards in music and dancing to which we are accustomed! Please be patient and understanding with the changes that we need to incorporate.
