

Counting Your Blessings—Enjoying Your Blessings

by Bruce Herbold

Life for a Scottish Country Dancer could hardly get better than here in the Bay Area. Eight monthly parties happen each year. Andy Imbrie coordinates the musical groupings and each time a different assemblage of some of the world's best SCD musicians perform. Andy, Lyle Ramshaw, Gary Thomas, Susan Worland, Janet Kurnick, Deby Benton-Grosjean, David Mostardi, Ron Wallace, and many others, make us the envy of any dancer who visits.

The monthly party programs have a consistent pattern so that attendees can expect new challenges and old favorites every time. The programming committee always aims to have 5 new dances that haven't been on our programs for at least two years, 5 dances that were new the previous month and another 5 that are making their third appearance and will then retire for at least a couple of years. Of these 15 dances, 5 are basic dances, 3 are advanced dances and the remaining 7 are intermediate dances. Even if somebody hasn't learned the 3 advanced dances in a class they can still expect to enjoy the other 12.

All teachers in our branch receive the official directions for every non-RSCDS dance on all our ball and party programs. If there are dances you that you see on upcoming programs of which you are unsure, suggest that your teacher cover them in an upcoming class. Most teachers plan their classes well in advance, so it may not be possible to teach every request immediately, but all teachers like to know the interests of their class members.

Regular attendees count the monthly parties as a highlight of their month, and leave the hall happily exhausted and merrily chattering. Although many regulars hope to dance with all the people with whom they enjoyed dancing the previous month, everyone tries to ensure that all who come get to dance. There's no need to be shy of asking anyone to dance—in this branch, gender, age and experience place no constraints on whom one asks to dance.

Party locations vary from Mill Valley to Santa Cruz so that everyone has at least one monthly party near them. Occasionally, logistical difficulties have required a party to be moved, so it is always a good idea to check the website for the latest information and directions to monthly parties. Although the party location varies, there is a strong contingent of dancers that travels to wherever the party may be. Carpooling is a great way to combine visiting with friends with a night of dance, and is environmentally friendly to boot.

Some hosting classes work to make their parties different—some lay on wonderful after-dance buffets, while others brilliantly bedeck the halls. The June party in Santa Cruz is often enlivened by a dazzling array of attire from formal to Hawaiian shirts with kilts

If there are dances you would like to see on the monthly party programs, please send them to the monthly party program coordinator (currently Bruce Herbold, at bherbold@aol.com). Also contact Bruce or any member of the Branch Committee with suggestions on how to make the parties better.

Scottish Country Dance is the social dancing of Scotland—see you on the dance floor!

Uncontested Branch Committee Election Policy

by Nancy Page and Larry Wakeman, Nominating Committee

Last year's election for the Branch Committee had four candidates for the four positions that were up for election. Many members of the Branch questioned the expense of mailing the ballots for an affirmation vote.

The San Francisco Branch of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society is incorporated under section 501(c)(3) of the California Corporations Laws. These laws specify that in the event of an election where there is only a single candidate for a position, the voting members of the corporation are allowed to vote for or against this candidate, as specified in section 7514(b). In essence it, this section states that a written ballot must specify a choice of approval or disapproval of the candidates.

In the event that there are only enough candidates to fill the positions that are open on the board, a candidate will be

New Spring Workshop!

Are you looking for a chance to sharpen your technique or improve your mastery of figures and formations? Can't get away for a weekend at Asilomar in the fall? Maybe you're suffering from Asilomar withdrawal. Whatever your reason, you now have a new opportunity. This May the Branch will be holding its First Annual Spring Workshop. You can choose from Advanced Technique or Forms & Figures and be treated to an afternoon of dance taught by one of our best teachers.

The Workshop will be held in conjunction with the May monthly party. This is also the day for the Branch Potluck and AGM. You'll be in easy walking distance of the Alameda

Volunteer Opportunities

Historical SCD Recordings Available: Volunteer Needed

The Branch has been presented with a unique opportunity by one of its longtime members, Ken McFarland. During the 1980's and 1990's, Ken assembled a collection of vintage SCD recordings. The records range in age from about 1920 to 1960, and formed the "only available music for most RSCDS-style dancing in North America in that time period". Some records predate that time and are the only known recordings for some early SCD musicians. According to Ken, there are no other substantial collections such as this in North America and some are not even available to the RSCDS HQ.

The collection is made up of about 300 records, mostly 78 rpm. Ken would like to see these copied onto CD so that they can be made available for loan to interested branch members (and for his archives). The Branch has the necessary equipment, but is hoping that there is someone out there with the interest and time to work on this project. If you think you might be that person, please contact anyone on the Branch Committee. This could be fun!

Masonic Hall, so you can plan on going directly to the potluck and then to the dance. Here are the details:

When: May 7, 2005; 2:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Where: Advanced Technique: Twin Towers United Methodist Church, 1411 Oak St., Alameda; Forms & Figures: Alameda Masonic Hall.

Cost: $15 for Branch members, $18 for non-members.

Note that space is limited for the Advanced Technique class, so get your application in soon. Look for a flyer in class or on the website (www.rscds-sf.org), or contact Greg Reznick at greg@reznickfamily.com or at 925-417-2074.

Branch Committee Actions

December 2004

Reported by Greg Reznick, Recording Secretary

Events

Asilomar: In December, Cameron reported on plans for the 2005 weekend, which will be held on October 28th, 29th, and 30th. The Lovells have agreed to be Ball Chairs. Fiddlesticks & Ivory will provide the music for the Ball. Juliet Davoren will chair the Friday party. Patti Cobb has agreed to be Asilomar Chair in Training.

Branch Gala: In January, Witsie reviewed the preliminary budget. In general, expenses are firming up near the initial expectations and she expects the event to break even with conservative attendance assumptions. Paula reviewed the preliminary program. It provides an even mix of dances from the early days of the branch, locally devised dances, and local favorites. The event will be called “The Dance of the Decade”.

Spring Workshop: In December Greg offered a proposal to offer an afternoon workshop in the spring. The workshop would offer two simultaneous classes. One would be an advanced technique class and the other would be for dancers seeking practice in figures and formations. The committee agreed to support the workshop, which will be held on the same day as the May monthly party (also the Branch AGM and potluck). In January, Greg reported progress on the Spring Workshop. It will be held from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. in two halls in Alameda. Teachers and musicians are being recruited.

Reports

Treasurer’s Report: In December, the committee reviewed the financial reports that had been provided by Gary in advance of the meeting. This led to a general discussion of monthly party attendance. One action to be taken is simply more encouragement. The Teachers’ Committee and the class managers will be asked to “talk up” the monthly parties. In January, Gary provided the year-to-date financial reports. The Branch is generally on budget, though membership numbers are down from last year.

Class Managers Coordinator Report: The annual meeting will be held at 6:00 p.m. on the same date as the March monthly party.

Other Items

Voting Procedures In December the committee adopted a policy to address the issue of defining procedures for uncontested Branch elections. [The policy can be found on the Branch website.]

Branch Sound: In December the committee agreed to purchase some items that the Branch needs to complete its sound equipment. These include a stage snake, speaker cables, a microphone and a microphone stand.

Branch Publicity: In December Greg reported that he had met with the PR consultants and they were moving forward. He noted that they had requested that the Branch prepare profiles of several members who would be appropriate for featuring in an article should someone from the media be interested.

Application for Branch Class Recognition–San Francisco Sunday class: In December the committee considered the application by the San Francisco Sunday class to change their status from Affiliated Class to Branch Class. This is necessary due to their move from UCSF to another venue. In January, having determined that the proposed class met the requirements for recognition and that notice had been duly given and that no objections had been raised, the committee formally recognized the class Pleasanton Games: Sandra reviewed her communication with Alastair Brown regarding scheduling at the Pleasanton Games. He had provided information regarding his plans for the two stages and invited input from interested parties. Sandra volunteered to work with Alastair and the branch classes to develop an organized way for classes to express an interest in performing.

McFarland Donation Proposal: In January the committee considered a proposal from Ken McFarland. He has offered to donate his collection of SCD recordings to the Branch. This collection consists of recordings (mostly 78 rpm) that date from 1920 to 1960. As a condition of his gift, he would like the branch to make copies of the collection in CD format and to provide him with a copy for his archival purposes. The committee discussed the magnitude of this project and estimated that it represented approximately 100 hours of effort; the committee will look for someone willing to volunteer their time for this project.

considered as having been voted for (Approved) if the box on the submitted ballot is marked. A candidate will be considered as being voted against (Disapproved) if the box on the submitted ballot is not marked. Each candidate must receive a plurality (50% plus one) of the votes to be elected in this event.

If a position is unfilled, the by-laws of the branch specify that the committee can appoint a member of the branch to fill the position until the next Branch Committee election, at which time the position will be filled for the remainder of the term.
